Regular Events

Starting August 28th

Bible Studies

Small Group Bible Studies form the core of GCF. During one of the weekly meetings we typically have a bible study, singing, and prayer. The studies themselves last about 1.5-2 hours, but people often stay to talk over drinks and snacks.

"Following Christ in Grad Life"

This is a group especially for first-year grads (but open to anyone!). We will be thinking together about what it means to be a Christian and a graduate student and studying a variety of Bible passages on a topical basis. We will be firm on our ending time of 9:00 p.m.

Amy Richter (ar334@cornell.edu: 351-5292)

Robert Bode (rfb25@cornell.edu: 342-4101)

Geoff Recktenwald (gdr7@cornell.edu: 592-3570)

Mondays, 7:30 p.m. : Crossroads Life Centre
(corner of Stewart Ave. and Buffalo St.)

The Gospel of Matthew

In this study, we will seek to grow in our knowledge of Jesus' kingdom, ministry, and teachings via a detailed study of the book of Matthew. There should be plenty of stimulating discussions, so come join in!

Ray Fertig (rsf28@cornell.edu: 379-2535)

Steve Kirby (sdk32@cornell.edu: 280-3598)

Andrew Yeo (aiy3@cornell.edu: 319-4478)

Tuesdays, 7:30 p.m. : Heather and Heidi's apartment
N-1F Lansing West Apartments - Near Triphammer Mall
For directions: 592-0254 (Heather)

Minor Prophets : Out for Social Justice

A study of the books of Amos and Micah, with strong themes of social justice, Messianic expectations and a flair for the dramatic!

Jason Slinker (js395@cornell.edu: 319-4478)

Joe Kirtland (jdk44@cornell.edu: 351-0446)

Jen Lee (jhl34@cornell.edu: 342-4662)

Wednesdays, 7:30 p.m. : Chris and Heather's House
135 Salem Dr., NE of campus
For directions: 319-0117 (Chris or Heather)

Prayer Meetings

Prayer is an integral part of our spiritual formation and our lives as graduate students. We gather for prayer after every Bible study as well as corporately on a biweekly basis at various locations. For times and locations, see the website.

Saturday Night Life (SNL)

We have something happening almost every Saturday evening of the semester. Once a month this is a large group Potluck and Worship or a Roundtable discussion. Other nights it could be anything from board games to rock climbing, movies to scavenger hunts.

Roundtable Discussions

The Roundtable is a monthly discussion group where we gather to explore how Christian teachings and practices can be applied in our lives. Discussions are often led by a person with a unique perspective on the topic and focus on difficult or controversial issues. Check the web at www.rso.cornell.edu/gradcf/roundtable.php for more info.

Book Discussion

We will discuss Lauren Winner's book "Real Sex" on Fridays from noon-1pm at the Cul-De-Snack at Anabel Taylor Hall. This book develops a theological perspective of sexuality and chastity. Contact Thea Sircar (ars63@cornell.edu) for more information on joining in.

www.rso.cornell.edu/gradcf/

Our primary source of communication about GCF events is through our listserve GRAD-IV-L@cornell.edu. See our web page for information on how to join. If you have any questions about GCF or Christianity in general, please feel free to contact any of the Bible study leaders or Jason Slinker (js395@cornell.edu: 319-4478).
